

The event that changed everything forever
A new relationship: John 20:10-18

1. What in these verses reinforces that this is a reliable eye-witness account of the resurrection?
2. How would you describe Mary's transformation in this passage?
3. How does the resurrection help you in the face of death?
4. Why does Jesus tell Mary not to hold onto Him in verse 17?
5. What does Jesus say in verse 17 results from his returning to the Father?
6. How does our relationship with God change because of the death, resurrection and ascension of Jesus?
7. How can we make the most of this new relationship now, in this present crisis?
8. Verse 17 points us towards the future hope of being in a perfect relationship with God, as Father, in a perfect new creation. How does that change life now?
