PRAYER DIARY

MONDAY 4

Please continue to pray for our leaders as they oversee the country during these difficult days. Pray that they would make wise decisions that protect the vulnerable and uphold peace and justice.

As the music ministry team starts the “Worship Matters” course tonight via Zoom, pray this would be a fruitful time of training and encouragement.

TUESDAY 5

As students continue to meet together virtually to study Marks Gospel tonight, pray that there would be a real hunger to study God’s Word together. Please pray that despite not meeting face to face, the group times would be honest, sincere and encouraging.

WEDNESDAY 6

Pray for our frontline health care workers, as they continue to work in conditions that are often difficult and distressing. Ask the Lord to bless their efforts and to keep them safe.

As our Church Family Prayer meeting happens tonight in our own homes, please pray the church family would commit to praying, in full confidence that the Lord will hear and act according to His good will.

THURSDAY 7

As Bible Training Yorkshire continues today, pray for those teaching and for those participating online, that it would be a useful time of training.

Please also pray for Christianity Explored taking place tonight. Please pray people would continue to take part online, and that the different format wouldn’t hinder good engagement and understanding.

FRIDAY 8

As we mark the 75th anniversary since VE day, thank the Lord for the many men and women who gave their lives to protect our freedom. As we see many more risking their lives during this present crisis to protect our health, ask the Lord to give us thankful hearts, not taking such sacrifice and service for granted.

SATURDAY 9

Pray for those who’ve gone from here to train for cross-cultural ministry: Sophie in her first months at Bible college in Cape Town; Neil and Lucy finishing off at college in Vancouver and heading to Central Asia in 2021; and Julian and Beth working in a church in Sydney and hoping to join a church planting team in Paris next year.

SUNDAY 10

As we gather today ‘virtually’, please pray that God would speak to us through His Word as Paul preaches. Pray that, as a church family, we would continue to look out for each other even though we cannot meet face to face.
