

The event that changed everything forever A new responsibility: John 20:19-23

1. What does this “eye-witness” account add to the others in this chapter?
2. Why does Jesus say “Peace be with you”?
3. What does it tell us that “Peace be with you” surrounds verse 20?
4. Why is being sent such a surprise in the context?
5. If we’re being sent into a world that will reject the message, why go?
6. How are we helped in the task of evangelism?
7. What does verse 23 tell us we must be prepared to declare when telling people the gospel?
8. How does this passage encourage you and challenge you in your everyday life?
