PRAYER DIARY

MONDAY 22

Please pray for the Tufnell family during their final week before they move to Oughtibridge so that Chris can become the vicar of the parish church there. Ask the Lord to give them strength as they pack up and say their goodbyes and also great confidence in God's sovereign, loving care as they prepare for the changes ahead.

TUESDAY 23

Following the leaver's conference for final year students last week, please pray for them as they say their goodbyes and prepare for life after university. In these strange times ask the Lord to give them great confidence in His goodness and faithfulness. Pray that they would make wise choices as they make plans for the future and that they would seek to live for the Lord and his glory.

WEDNESDAY 24

As small groups continue to meet this week, please pray for perseverance to continue to meet online. Pray that these groups would be places of real spiritual encouragement through times of Bible study, prayer and conversations.

THURSDAY 25

As Bible Training Yorkshire continues today, please pray that the Bible would be taught faithfully and clearly, so that God's glory is clearly seen. Please pray that all those who take part online would engage well, with hungry hearts that are eager to listen and obey.

FRIDAY 26

Around the world, over 70 million refugees have no place to call home. Praise God that all people everywhere are made in his image, equal in dignity and worth before him. Pray for the church worldwide to be beacons of his love, justice and compassion as we reach out to the 'foreigner residing among [us]'.

SATURDAY 27

Pray for our new curate, Matt Lawes, as he is licensed today. As he looks forward to serving on the staff team here at Christ Church Fulwood, pray that the Lord would give him great confidence in the Gospel and all the energy he needs as he settles into a new role. Pray also for the Lawes family as they move and settle in during these strange lockdown conditions.

SUNDAY 28

As we continue our sermon series looking at Romans 8, please pray for Paul Williams as he preaches. Please pray that all those who listen in would do so with humble and hungry hearts that believe God's Word and are ready and willing to be changed by it.
