29 JUNE - 5 JULY

PRAYER DIARY

MONDAY 29

Speaking about authorities, Romans 13:7 says: "Give to everyone what you owe them: If you owe taxes, pay taxes; if revenue, then revenue; if respect, then respect; if honour, then honour." Pray that the church family at Fulwood would willing submit to our government, giving them the respect and honour God calls us to give them, including during this coronavirus crisis.

TUESDAY 30

Pray for Rob Mullock as he prepares to become the new Minister for Training here at Fulwood church. As Rob and the family pack up today and prepare to move to Sheffield tomorrow, please pray the Lord would give them strength to face the move. Pray also that they would have great confidence in the Lord's sovereign and loving care, as they experience much change.

WEDNESDAY 1

As our Church Family Prayer meeting happens tonight in our own homes, please pray the church family would commit to praying, in full confidence that the Lord will hear and act according to His good will.

THURSDAY 2

Praise the Lord that Bible Training Yorkshire has continued to run online during the lockdown. As the course continues today, pray for a deep hunger to study God's Word for all those who take part and for faithfulness to God's Word for those who teach.

FRIDAY 3

Praise God for 20 years of clear Christian witness at The Oakes - which was opened in July 2000. With this summer's camps now cancelled, pray for the team as they make best use of these coming weeks to plan and prepare for the future.

SATURDAY 4

Following the recent government announcement that weddings can go ahead from today, please pray for all the couples who have planned to get married here at Fulwood over the summer. As they consider when to have their weddings and how to comply with the restrictions that remain, pray they would not lose sight of God's plans and purposes for married life.

SUNDAY 5

As our online services continue this Sunday, please pray for Andy Fearnley as he concludes our sermon series from Romans 8. Ask the Lord to help him preach faithfully and clearly. Pray that many would make a real priority of watching and engaging with the service, and not just those from within the church family.
